REPORT

Date October 26, 1939.

Subject International Employment Bureau.

Made by D.S.I. Kao Yen Ken

Forwarded by [Signature]

The International Employment Bureau came into existence two months ago with an office in Room 232A, Hamilton House, 170 Kiangse Road. On October 16, it was removed to Room 107, 2 Peking Road.

It was opened by Mr. Walter Ascher, a German Jew. At present he acts as the Manager and Mr. E. Ruskin, a Russian Jew, as Sub-Manager. They are assisted by a staff of four Chinese.

Up to the present, 200 people have been registered as needing employment. Each of these is required to pay $1 to the bureau as registration charge and following obtaining employment has to pay the bureau $3 as remuneration. An application form which is to be signed on registering and an investigation report form are attached herewith. Some 35 of the registered have so far been introduced employment.
